

BULLETIN OF YOKOHAMA COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

Special Edition for the 50th Anniversary

Vol. 11

Preface

Masato KOBAYASHI

Articles

Shigeru KANI

The study of the Asset-Based Lending
—From conventional lending to innovative lending—

Hiroshi TAKAHASHI

The Analysis on the Essential Structure of Educational Relationship between Teacher and Student :
With Special Reference to Kitaro Nishida's Concept "Active Intuition" and "I and You"

Junko NAKAMURA

The process of creating 'the cultural heritage' in New Caledonia.
—A study on the exhibitions of Kanak culture—

Yuri KIMURA

Torn Between English as "Tool" and Arabic as "Roots" :
The Destination of University Students' Identity in the United Arab Emirates

Mikako SUETA

Speech Acts Regarding the Unfounded Blame Based on Misunderstandings and Other External Factors :
Comparing Working Japanese Adults and Japanese Students in Business Situations

Yuko TOMOTO

A Study of How Speakers are Influenced by the Language They Use
—Through Interviews on 16 Multilingual Speakers—

Yasuo GONJO

How did Neoliberalism come to have a Dominant Influence on French
Economic Society? (1958-1999)

Takeshi YOSHIDA

Net Income as Basic of Corporate Performance

Nobuyuki TAKAHASHI

On the Possibility of Development in Artificial Intelligence based on the Incompleteness Theorem

Notes

Fumio KOBAYASHI, Yasuhisa ITO, Yukiko NOGUCHI, Chihiro YOKOYAMA

The contribution of the "Ending-note" to the integration of Gerontology in an aging society, a proposal from a college.

Tomoyuki AKIYAMA

A study on bicycle using and cycle trails for tourism in Yokohama.
—A case study on bicycle monitor tours in Yokohama—

Yokohama College of Commerce